NOTES

1. Some engines take a few weeks to index your submission. We would recommend you resubmit your site on a regular basis to ensure the search engines maintains up-to-date listings.
2. Failed submissions are usually caused by a site being 'down', altered or there is excessive traffic on the net at the time of submission.
3. Terms of Service. <http://www.submit-a-site.com/uk/customerinfo/terms.htm>
4. Skip Submit by FAST Search/Google/MSN Search etc. The submission process has skipped submitting your web site to this search engine as submissions to this web site are performed manually. All submissions to the major search engines are performed manually.
5. Server Error. There was a problem contacting the search engine/list/directory. Either the server was offline or the domain name was invalid.
6. Submission Timeout. The server was available, but the server timed out waiting for a response from the server to acknowledge receipt of the submission.
7. Connection Timeout. The server domain records were directing the submission to an address which may not have existed and a connection to the server could not be made.
8. Failed. A connection to the server could not be made or there was another unknown problem with the server.
9. It is not uncommon for submissions to lesser known search engines, 'Free For All Links' or directories to fail. If you have any queries regarding failed submissions, please contact us through the Support form.
